News and Prayer Requests from the Free Presbyterian Churches of North America

REV. PHIL OWEN
Berean Free Presbyterian

Boston,
New York

Rev. Phil Owen and his family were blessed by the many cards, gifts, calls, and visits they received and by all who attended the visitation and funeral service for Tonia in January. The little white church building was full in the sanctuary and downstairs. Many lost souls paid their condolences and heard the gospel. Please pray for conversions.

Many men have filled the pulpit during the extensive sabbatical Mr. Owen was given during his wife's illness. Besides the men mentioned in the last prayer bulletin, Chris Barnes and Andrae Lyons have traveled far to help the congregation.

The church is planning its annual outreach to community organizations that are helpful and necessary, such as the state police, EMTs, hospitals, nursing homes, fire halls, and the bus garage. Some shut-ins are also included. Please pray for souls to be saved.

REV. NATHAN McVEIGH
Calgary Free Presbyterian

Calgary,
Alberta

Rev. Nathan McVeigh thanks those who continue to remember and pray for the work of God in Calgary.

Please pray with the church for men to be raised up and equipped for the office of elder as this is the desire of Mr. McVeigh and the congregation according to God's purpose for His church.

Please pray for the children of the congregation, most of whom attend the Sunday school and the services on the Lord's Day, that the Lord would draw them to Himself in saving power.

REV. LALO PEÑA
Coram Deo Free Presbyterian

Córdoba,
Mexico

On January 27, 2026, Maggie Ordaz was called to her heavenly home. Rev. Lalo Peña had the honor of sharing the gospel with her family, friends, and neighbors. Her grandson, Ángel, in particular, showed great interest in the gospel. Please pray that the Word will bear fruit.

Rev. Jason Boyle visited the church in Córdoba the weekend of February 1, when the church celebrated the 89th birthday of Mr. Peña's mother, Celina Jiménez. They were blessed by his preaching of God's Word in the Sunday services.

On February 8, Abdiel and Pamela Mendoza (Mr. Peña's son-in-law and daughter) and Uriel Peña (Mr. Peña's son) were admitted as new members of the church. Please pray for them to be a blessing to the church and the denomination.

Please pray for 1) Anuar and Angie Jaín, the young couple with five children who are considering changing churches to the FP church; 2) the salvation of Juan Emilio and Romina Graniel, Elgem, Grecia, Oliver, and Ailyn and that they would continue to attend the church; 3) the sick in the church: Ramón Olguín, Mary Estevez, Emigdio Cruz, and Aristeo Valdéz; 4) Mr. Peña's wife, Liz, and his whole family.

Finally, please pray for the works in Jalpan de Serra, Querétaro, and La Escalera, San Luis Potosí, which are in the process of becoming mission churches under the care of the session of Coram Deo Free Presbyterian Church. Rev. Lalo Peña closes, "Pray that God will grant us grace to attend to the needs of this vibrant church and faithfulness to preach the glorious gospel of Christ."

REV. FRANK D'ADDURNO
Fredericton Free Presbyterian

Fredericton,
New Brunswick

Fredericton FPC is encouraged by new visitors who have been attending and have shown an interest in the work. Pray that the Lord would lead them to become full-time supporters of the work and that the Lord will add new families and individuals to the work. Fredericton FPC is grateful to the Lord for all of those who have been giving to the work financially. Please pray that eventually, in the Lord's timing, the church will become a constituted work and be financially independent.

Rev. Frank D'Addurno has been encouraged by growth in the prayer meeting and also by increased attendance at the evening service. Pray that the Lord would continue to move upon each soul in the church.

REV. ARMEN THOMASSIAN
Faith Free Presbyterian
Greenville,
South Carolina

On a recent Wednesday evening, Caleb Spann reported on the construction team that went to Jamaica in February. He and several men from other FP churches spent a week helping to restore damage caused by Hurricane Helene to the church and the houses of the church people.

Faith FPC is looking forward to its annual workday on March 14. Many in the church will enjoy a family camp together in North Carolina towards the end of March. Rev. Stephen Pollock will be the special speaker.

Congratulations are in order for Calvin Lee, who is marrying Jocelyn Castine this month, and for Mrs. Penny Melsom, who just became engaged to marry Mr. Dale Walker. Two babies are expected in April. Please pray for healthy babies and safe deliveries.

Preparations for VBS in June and youth camp in July are underway. Pray for the Lord to bless both activities and continue to pray for the church's outreach ministries to bear fruit for God's glory.

REV. SEONGKYU LEE
Gwangmyeong Faith Free Presbyterian
Gwangmyeong,
South Korea

The people in the FP church in South Korea are grateful to be a constituted church in the FPCNA and happy to be able to share their prayer requests with the other churches.

This year, the Korean church desires to devote themselves more earnestly to evangelism, praying for opportunities to meet people and to share the gospel with them. Please pray that they will be able to engage in evangelism regularly and faithfully.

Please also pray for the weaker members in the church. One sister has been on a leave of absence from her job following a fall. She is soon to return to work but is concerned because her health has not been fully restored. Another sister has been unable to attend worship due to her newborn baby, but hopes to return in March. The church looks forward to seeing her and her whole family together in good health.

A new young man has visited the church. He has never attended church before and is completely unfamiliar with the gospel and the Bible. Please pray that God's saving grace may come upon him and that the Lord would call this precious soul to Himself and grant him the wonderful grace of salvation.

REV. GEOFF BANISTER
Indianapolis Free Presbyterian
Indianapolis,
Indiana

Rev. Geoff Banister requests prayer for Charissa Nymann, who is suffering from an inner ear viral infection that leaves her feeling dizzy to the point that she can do little else but stay in bed with her eyes closed. Please pray for Danny Worpell and his landscaping business. He needs to see an immediate increase in customers. The situation has become very serious for his business. Pray the Lord will intervene and turn things around.

Pray for Bobby Rowe as he arrives back in Indianapolis having completed a month of preaching in William's Lake. Pray that he'll be able to resume his duties in the Indianapolis church in the power of the Holy Spirit. Continue to pray the Lord will draw people into the church and that the webcast will be used to lead souls to Christ.

REV. STEPHEN POLLOCK
FPC of Malvern
Malvern, Pennsylvania

Rev. Stephen Pollock asks for prayer for a baptismal service scheduled for March 7. Three young people from the Seifert family are making their faith public in baptism.

The Malvern church is thankful that the regular visitors mentioned previously are still attending. Please pray for the Lord to use His Word to meet their varied spiritual needs.

Please continue to pray that the Lord will bring families into the services. The church is praying for the opportunity to minister to children and young people from the surrounding area.

REV. JASON BOYLE
Iglesia Cristiana El Redentor
(Redeemer Christian Church)
Mexico City,
Mexico

The church in Mexico City has been studying the topic of baptism in Sunday school in preparation for an infant baptism as well as two believers' baptisms coming up in April. Please pray for various people who are studying in preparation to become members of the church.

Pray for the young people's meeting for ages 11-15, where they have just begun a new study emphasizing the basics of the gospel. Pray that the parents will be equipped to lead their children. Also pray for the many younger children and babies in the church, that they would be saved and grow in grace at a young age.

A lady who used to attend the church has been hospitalized with a very large abscess on her lung as well as a barely functioning kidney. Pray for Ari, that the Lord would use this trial to bring her back to Himself and also to save her daughters (Caro, who is 19, and Isa, who is 8).

The second annual Mexican family camp is coming up April 1–4. Please pray that the Lord would prepare hearts to hear his Word and that families would grow in Him. Pray for the pastors who will preach, for those who will listen, and especially for God’s work in the children. Pray that it will be a unifying time for the churches and that the Lord would provide financially for those who want to attend.

REV. LOGAN ELDER
Orlando Free Presbyterian

Orlando, Florida

Rev. Logan Elder says they are patiently waiting on the Lord to save souls and re-establish the work in Orlando. In addition to the Lord’s Day services, the Saturday “Conversations for Christ” ministry is a primary focus for Mr. Elder. More people have been stopping for significant amounts of time to listen as the gospel is preached, and many are also taking Bibles and other gospel literature. Good conversations are taking place. Mr. Elder says it is a blessing to see the Lord doing “small things” to encourage them in the work. He has also made a renewed effort recently to give Orlando FPC a more consistent online presence in the form of sermon clips.

At the beginning of the year, Amelia Elder started a homeschool co-op, which has taken the place of the Moms and Tots ministry for now. The adult and children’s Sunday school has been going well. Please pray for God’s richest blessing on the outreach efforts.

Many in the congregation still have health struggles and other challenges. Please pray that all will know the Lord’s help as they seek to honor Him in these days.

REV. CRAIG VOSEKALNS
Phoenix Free Presbyterian

Peoria,
Arizona

Rev. Craig Vosekalns reports that the fortieth-anniversary weekend celebrated February 13–15 by Phoenix FPC was a wonderful time. Having visitors from North Carolina, Alabama, Pennsylvania, Missouri, and South Carolina made the weekend quite memorable. At the Friday evening dinner Rev. Mark Fineout preached a very encouraging message from Genesis 28:18 on the importance of remembering what the Lord has done as the Phoenix church carries on its mission. Saturday featured a sightseeing trip to Sedona and the Grand Canyon. The weekend was sealed with the Lord’s blessing as Mr. Fineout emphasized the work of the Holy Spirit from Genesis 24:63 in a message titled, “Behold, the Camels Were Coming.” Afterwards, the church and all its guests enjoyed a great time of fellowship and lunch together.

The Phoenix FPC held its first meeting on February 23, 1986, so it was fitting that Rev. David Mook was invited to speak on February 22 at both the services to mark that occasion. Please continue to pray for the Lord to build the church, equip the saints, and exalt the Lord Jesus Christ for many more years.

Please pray for Chris Myers, who has been deployed to Fort Bragg, North Carolina, for training. Chris will then be sent to Saudi Arabia for a year. His family and the church will greatly miss him. Finally, continue to pray for the elderly of the congregation who are all going through aging and serious health trials.

DR. LARRY SAUNDERS
Interim Moderator
Port Hope Free Presbyterian

Port Hope,
Ontario

Please pray for intern student minister Mr. Daniel Sima’an who has been taking the weekly services in Port Hope. Pray for the continued growth of God’s work in Port Hope and for His hand to be on the various evangelistic endeavors through Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube. Please pray for visitors and serious, committed families to come into the church from the town of Port Hope and the surrounding communities.

Please continue to pray for Rev. Reggie Cranston and his health needs as he is very weak. Pray also for Mr. Alec Brown, who is suffering with lung disease.

Please pray especially with the congregation for the Lord to send a full-time pastor to the work in Port Hope. They need the Lord to work and send a time of refreshing.

REV. ANDREW SIMPSON
Heritage Free Presbyterian
Prince George,
British Columbia

The church in Prince George has been encouraged by several families who are sending their children to the monthly Good News Bible Club. Some of the children come from unsaved homes, yet their families have been receptive to the gospel. Please pray that these families would begin attending the church services and that the Lord would work savingly in their hearts.

A webinar to train elders and deacons has commenced and will run every Thursday night from February through May. Various subjects are being taught each month by Rev. Andrew Simpson, Rev. Andrew Fitton, and Rev. Nathan McVeigh with the aim of preparing men for these offices and equipping men already serving in these roles. Around 25 men have participated so far. Please pray that the Lord will raise up qualified men to serve in the churches.

The Simpsons are expecting their third child at the beginning of April. Naomi's parents plan to visit for a month following the birth to help out.

REV. RAMÓN SOSA
Palabra de Vida IPL
(Word of Life FPC)

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

Rev. Ramón Sosa thanks the Lord for His faithfulness in every aspect of their ministry and lives in Santo Domingo. The church is deeply grateful for the visit of Rev. Derrick Bowman for a recent weekend. He preached on Sunday and also taught the adult Sunday school lesson.

Please pray for good health for Mr. Sosa. He recently had to go to the emergency room following a dizzy spell and has had tests to determine the cause. He is awaiting the results.

Mr. Sosa had hoped his wife, Wendy, and their daughters would be able to accompany him to Toronto in May for the Week of Prayer, but their applications for Canadian visas were denied. Mr. Sosa says, "While this is not the outcome we would have desired, we rest entirely in God's sovereign will, knowing that it is good, acceptable, and perfect."

Please pray for the new people who have been attending the church. Pray that the Lord will give Mr. Sosa the grace and wisdom to disciple them, teach them His truths, and faithfully answer all the questions and concerns they bring to him.

Please continue to pray for the financial provision and sustenance of the church and ministry. Specifically, please pray regarding the upcoming rent increase for their facility, their primary administrative challenge for 2026.

DR. LARRY SAUNDERS
DR. FRANK McCLELLAND
Emeritus
Toronto Free Presbyterian

Toronto,
Ontario

The Toronto church was saddened to lose two well-known and well-liked members recently: Jean Bynoe and Pat Mills. Jean was from Barbados and was a long-time Sunday school teacher. She had been ill for several years. Pat was in her native Ulster when she died at 74. Part of the thirty years she spent in Toronto she served as a missionary to the Jews. Your prayers for their families would be appreciated.

This is a jubilee year for the Toronto church and special celebrations are planned to coincide with the Ministers' Week of Prayer which will be held this May in Toronto. Please pray for these and other special meetings planned for Toronto this year.

REV. MYRON MOONEY
Trinity Free Presbyterian

Trinity,
Alabama

The Trinity congregation continues to praise God for His wonderful provisions for them. They rejoice in the generosity shown toward Jacob Frank to support his participation on the construction mission team that went to Jamaica recently and to care for his family at home.

Rev. and Mrs. Myron Mooney traveled to Phoenix for the fortieth-anniversary weekend of Phoenix Free Presbyterian Church. They enjoyed the anniversary celebration recounting God's faithfulness to the congregation through the years. While the Mooneys were in Phoenix, Mr. Chris Barnes' preaching was a blessing at Trinity FPC.

Mr. Mooney is grateful for the opportunity to fill in for Rev. Logan Elder in Orlando on the first Lord's Day of March, and he is thankful for Mr. Ernie Yarbrough and Mr. Jacob Frank preaching in Trinity FPC.

Please pray for Mrs. Deborah Yarbrough, whose mother passed away in February. Deborah is grateful for tokens of comfort that her mother truly did know the Lord. Also, pray that the annual ladies' breakfast planned for March 14 will be an encouragement to the women and girls who attend.

Please pray for the physical needs of some who have chronic illnesses and painful conditions. Pray especially for Mr. Mac McDonald, who has suffered a subdural hematoma brain bleed and has undergone surgery. Also, pray that the Lord will save the lost among them.

REV. ANDREW SIMPSON
Overseeing Minister
Williams Lake Free Presbyterian

Williams Lake,
British Columbia

The church in Williams Lake has been encouraged in recent months by new visitors attending the services. The congregation appreciated the ministry of Mr. Bobby Rowe in February and looks forward to welcoming Mr. Eric Fiorucci and Rev. Ian Goligher in March and April.

Plans are underway to host a vacation Bible school in July, with several volunteers from the western FP churches intending to assist. In addition to the VBS, some maintenance work is also planned. Please pray for the Lord's blessing upon these efforts and that He would provide a minister for the congregation.
