News and Prayer Requests from the Free Presbyterian Churches of North America

REV. ANTHONY D'ADDURNO
Barrie Free Presbyterian

Barrie,
Ontario

Some visitors have attended the services of Barrie FPC in recent days with some of them returning. Please pray that God would add to the church. Also, pray for some tracts and invitations that were delivered to homes in the community. Some good contacts have resulted from the distribution but pray that the Lord will move upon hearts. The Bible says, "Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it" (Psalm 127:1).

The people in the Barrie church are looking to the Lord as Rev. Anthony D'Addurno plans to retire in October. A retirement dinner is being planned. Mr. D'Addurno and his family will continue attending and supporting Barrie FPC with Mrs. D'Addurno playing the piano. Pray that the Lord will provide a man of his own choosing to lead the congregation.

Pray also for a couple of visiting ministers who will be preaching in Barrie in September. Continue to pray for Let the Bible Speak as God's Word goes across Canada through the means of radio.

REV. LALO PEÑA
Coram Deo Free Presbyterian

Córdoba,
Mexico

Rev. Lalo Peña reports that attendance remains strong in the church in Córdoba and several people have visited recently, including two men who are both named Victor. They are both construction workers and fathers; one of them has problems with alcoholism and the other has a background related to Jehovah's Witnesses. A young woman named Dulce Maria has also visited. The gospel has been preached to all of them. Pray for their salvation.

For the past three weeks, Sister Lety Colina's eldest son, Julio César, has been attending services. Pray that God will strengthen this young man through the church. A family of five, who are believers with a Presbyterian background, have joined the church. In addition, Jonathan Rodriguez wishes to become a member and to be confirmed in a call to the ministry of God's Word. Please pray for him, for his wife, Erika, their two children, and his father, Roberto.

The church thanks God that their summer Bible school August 17-21, with the theme "The Armor of God" from the book of Ephesians, went well. Thirty-two children attended.

Please pray for Uriel Peña (18), son of Pastor Peña. Uriel was greatly blessed to be part of the mission team that visited the Dominican Republic in August. Pray that God will open doors for him to begin his theological studies in the near future. Mr. Peña says, "We continue to invite family and friends of our congregants to join us and hear the gospel. May God save more souls."

REV. JOHN KELLY
Northwoods Free Presbyterian

Fort Kent,
Maine

Rev. John Kelly is thankful for a few visitors to the work in Maine over the past couple of months. Please pray for them to return. In recent days they have begun a study through the Westminster Larger Catechism in a classroom type environment, with questions and answers. It has been encouraging to see people thinking deeply on the truths of the catechism and fruitful discussion has ensued. They continue to have times of prayer and fasting as a congregation twice a month on Fridays and continue to seek the Lord for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit and power. Please pray for souls to be saved, for visitors that come to stay, and for a genuine work of awakening in the valley (Ephesians 3:20).

REV. FRANK D'ADDURNO
Fredericton Free Presbyterian

Fredericton,
New Brunswick

Fredericton FPC has been encouraged by a Dutch couple that recently visited the church and expressed interest in the work. The church has also been encouraged by improved attendance at the evening service as more people have committed themselves to both services on the Lord's Day.

The congregation is looking forward to September 30 when the church will be hosting a special Trinitarian Bible Society meeting. Many Christians from the area will be attending, so the meeting will provide good exposure for the church.

Please continue to pray that the Lord will grant them their desire to become a constituted work.

REV. ARMEN THOMASSIAN
Faith Free Presbyterian
Greenville,
South Carolina

The Faith FPC family lost two of its long-time members in July. Miss Alice Cromley (97) served the church in its cassette tape ministry for many years and was a cheerful encouragement to many. Mrs. Alice Gingery (95) was a gifted pianist who accompanied the choir and congregation in worship. She also cared for generations of children in the church nursery.

The church enjoyed hearing reports from the FPCNA Youth Camp and from the mission trip to the Dominican Republic. The summer outreach in the Hispanic neighborhood had good attendance with some of the older children coming for the evening Bible studies. On August 23 the church witnessed the baptisms of three young people, and on August 30 it held a day of prayer.

Rev. Armen Thomassian will be preaching in Northern Ireland September 13–16 for the annual conference of Hebron FPC. Rev. Reggie Kimbro will preach in Greenville on the 13th, and Dr. Bruce McAllister, president of Bob Jones University, and Dr. Ken Casillas (BJU Seminary) will preach on the 20th. Pray for the Lord to bless the church's Reformation Weekend at the end of October. Rev. John Greer, retired minister from Northern Ireland and former minister of FPC of Malvern will be the special speaker along with Dr. Mark Sidwell, professor of church history at Bob Jones University and adjunct professor at Geneva Reformed Seminary.

REV. SANGHOON HAN
Korean Free Presbyterian
Greenville,
South Carolina

Rev. Sanghoon Han requests prayer for some in the Korean church who are going through difficult trials with their health. Sister Yoon Bok-hee is currently undergoing treatment for colon cancer, and her husband, Brother Philip Palmer, is battling lung cancer. Please pray for this family, that God will give them the faith to fully trust in Him in the midst of their pain and difficulties. Sister Yon Nicholes has undergone heart valve surgery and pacemaker surgery. Please pray that she will recover well and regain her health. Finally, please pray that the congregation will hear the truth of God's Word and build their faith firmly upon Christ, the Rock.

REV. GEOFF BANISTER
Indianapolis Free Presbyterian
Indianapolis,
Indiana

On Sunday, August 23, the Indianapolis church family held a surprise reception for Rev. Geoff Banister in honor of the 25th anniversary of his ordination to be the minister of the church. Mr. Banister is grateful for the quality of people that the Lord has brought together to form their church family. Pray that the love shown by the members of this church for each other will spill over to others and that the Lord will grant Pastor Banister grace, strength, and wisdom to carry on the ministry of the gospel.

The Indianapolis church family rejoiced in the marriage of Bobby Rowe to Rachelle Nymann on Saturday, August 29. Many of Rachelle's unsaved co-workers were in attendance and heard the gospel preached. The wedding was well attended by visitors from other FP churches and family relatives. Many who came for the wedding attended the Sunday services. Rev. Derrick Bowman preached in the morning, and Rev. Geoff Banister preached in the afternoon. Pray for Bobby and Rachelle as they begin their lives together. They will be living in the church house to start, and Bobby will be licensed in October at the Week of Prayer to be an assistant minister to Mr. Banister.

REV. MARK FINEOUT
FPC of Lees Summit
Lees Summit,
Missouri

Rev. Mark Fineout thanks all who have prayed for the Lees Summit church regarding their rent situation. Their landlord agreed to keep their rent at the present rate if they would go to a monthly lease. The church views this as a wonderful answer to prayer. While this averts an emergency situation for them, they still need the Lord's leading for the future.

Please pray for unsaved loved ones. Each family in the church has those for whom they are praying. Mr. Fineout says, "We are asking the Lord to 'expand our tent pegs.' Our group is aging and we are praying for helpers."

REV. STEPHEN POLLOCK
FPC of Malvern
Malvern, Pennsylvania

As the summer ends, FPC of Malvern is looking forward to the restarting of some ministries such as their Puritan Pages Book Club and the ladies' fellowship. Please pray for the Lord's blessing on these times of fellowship. The men of the church have been invited to join the men from Reformation Bible Church for a men's retreat on October 3. Rev. Stephen Pollock has been asked to bring the Word prior to an afternoon season of prayer.

The church is also looking forward to holding a baptismal service on September 13. Two ladies are to be baptized, Lord willing. They began to attend the church a couple of years ago, and Dr. Pollock is thankful for how the Lord has blessed them and led them to this point of public profession of faith in Christ.

REV. JASON BOYLE
Iglesia Presbiteriana Libre el Redentor
(Mexico City FPC)

Mexico City,
Mexico

Rev. Jason Boyle thanks the Lord for upholding His church and giving more opportunities to spread the gospel. Rubén and Cinthya will soon begin planting a church in Iztapalapa, one of the most populous boroughs of Mexico City. Some ten people from the Boyles' church plan to go with them. The Mexico City church has a burden for churches to be planted in other sections of the city, since they have families coming from all over who need a church that is more local to them. Pray for Rubén and Cinthya and for the Lord to raise up more men and send them out to needy areas.

Pray for the Boyles and the church as they seek ways to reach their immediate community with the gospel. They hope in the next year to refocus on the area around the church for evangelism. They want to be a light to their own community and to see the church grow with people who live there.

Please continue praying for the Lord to provide the funds to buy a property and build a church building. They are hopeful that in the last few months of this year they will be able to begin moving forward with practical steps to look at buying, but they need the Lord's guidance and provision.

REV. LOGAN ELDER
Orlando Free Presbyterian

Orlando, Florida

Rev. Logan Elder says Orlando FPC is very excited to host the 2026 Fall Week of Prayer and Presbytery Meetings October 5–9. Please pray for the Lord's richest blessing upon the times of preaching, prayer, and denominational work.

They have recently had a few new visitors in answer to prayer. A young couple have been attending consistently for a little over a month, and very recently, two visitors came as a result of the outreach that takes place on Saturdays. These and other mercy drops have been very encouraging.

Some in the congregation have trials with their health. Please pray especially for Katherine Walker, whose health has declined very quickly in the past week. She is now in hospice care. Pray for her daughter Kathy and the rest of her family.

REV. CRAIG VOSEKALNS
Phoenix Free Presbyterian

Peoria,
Arizona

Rev. Craig Vosekalns asks for prayer for the elderly in the Phoenix church who are dealing with various health concerns. Please remember their families and those who care for them as well.

Immediately after the morning worship service on Sunday, August 23, many in the congregation stayed to eat lunch together, and then held their second service at 1:30 p.m. The church has done this periodically and it has proven to be a wonderful time of blessing.

The church recently heard two excellent reports: Caleb Spann's (via SermonAudio) about the mission team's trip to the Dominican Republic and Kaleb Morrow's about being a counsellor at the youth camp in July. The church in Phoenix continues to pray for the ministries and mission trips of our denomination. Finally, the church has a new website. Please visit at www.phoenixfpc.org.

DR. LARRY SAUNDERS
Interim Moderator
Port Hope Free Presbyterian

Port Hope,
Ontario

Please continue to pray for intern student minister Mr. Daniel Sima'an as he takes the weekly services at Port Hope FPC. Pray for the growth of God's work in Port Hope and for His hand to be on the various evangelistic outreach endeavors into the community, especially the copies of the Gospel of John that were recently distributed into the homes around the church. Pray for visitors and for committed families to come into the church from the local area.

Please continue to pray for Rev. Reggie Cranston and his ongoing health needs. Also pray for Mr. Alec Brown, who is suffering with lung disease, and Mrs. Donna Hicks, who is recovering from hip surgery. Please pray especially with the congregation for the Lord to send a full-time pastor to the work in Port Hope. They need the Lord to work and to send times of reviving and quickening.

REV. ANDREW SIMPSON
Heritage Free Presbyterian
Prince George,
British Columbia

In Prince George, most church ministries stop for the summer season. The exception is the annual vacation Bible school, which was held July 6–10. The theme of the lessons was "The Parables of Christ," with each day focusing on a different parable. Rev. Andrew Simpson taught the lesson each day, while other volunteers led the memory verses, told the missionary story of Amy Carmichael, and led the crafts and games. Forty-six children attended throughout the week, and one family has begun attending the church as a result of the VBS, which has been very encouraging.

Several people from the Prince George church were able to attend the FPC Western Canada Family Conference at Cloverdale FPC. Rev. Logan Elder preached very well, and the Prince George people enjoyed the fellowship with those from the other western churches.

The church thanks the Lord for a new baby born to the Mauger family in June.

REV. RAMÓN SOSA
Palabra de Vida IPL (Word of Life FPC)

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

The church in Santo Domingo Este praises God for the mission team led by Rev. Derrick Bowman that visited them for a week of vacation Bible school August 1–8. Attendance grew each day and reached 94 children by Friday. Please pray that parables taught and the Scripture verses memorized would take root in the children's hearts and open doors for ministry among their families.

The discipleship class with five participants has concluded and pastoral interviews will soon be complete. The next step is examination before the interim session and then hopefully baptism and church membership. Pray for clarity in the interviews and for wisdom for the session.

Rev. Ramón Sosa is preaching through Romans on Sunday mornings and Nehemiah in the evenings. The services are livestreamed via SermonAudio. Pray for fruit among the listeners and that the outreach online would open further doors for evangelism.

They remain in negotiations with the owner of the property the church rents regarding a space originally pledged in the rental agreement. Pray for a just and favorable resolution. CEPVI enrollment for the 2026–2027 school year has been slower than hoped, with only 43 children enrolled of the 70 hoped for (60 would be acceptable). They ask for urgent prayer for increased enrollment.

Please continue to pray for unity and wisdom for the interim session, and for the Lord's sustaining grace for Pastor Sosa as he carries the pastoral duties, the administration of CEPVI, and his presbytery responsibilities. Pray for grace in leading his family, for wisdom in guiding his twin daughters, now 22, and for faithfulness in bringing God's Word both publicly and at home.

DR. LARRY SAUNDERS
DR. FRANK McCLELLAND
Emeritus
Toronto Free Presbyterian

Toronto, Ontario

The Toronto Young Adult Bible Conference was held in August with Rev. Ian Goligher as the special speaker. The meetings and fellowship were very encouraging, and the church prays for spiritual growth in all their youth.

The Toronto congregation will be delivering ten thousand copies of the Gospel of John into the community around the church over the next few weeks. Please pray for the Word of God as it goes into homes in the community.

The church looks forward to having Rev. Geoff Banister as its guest speaker for the Reformation services at the end of October. Pray that God will bless his messages and the times of fellowship.

Pray for the new school year of Whitefield Christian Schools as the teachers and students return from their summer break. This year has a full enrollment with approximately three hundred students registered.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank McClelland have moved to a new seniors' care home in Uxbridge. Please pray for them as they settle into their new home.

REV. MYRON MOONEY
Trinity Free Presbyterian

Trinity, Alabama

The congregation in Alabama is grateful to the Lord for His wonderful blessings to them in recent weeks. It was a great joy to the congregation and visitors to witness Jacob Frank be ordained as a ruling elder. At the annual For God & Truth Conference, Rev. John Wagner and Rev. Armen Thomassian shared the preaching responsibilities.

The church is sponsoring the Trinity Blessing Box, a big cabinet containing staple goods and personal and comfort items, which the area needy can freely take from. It is reportedly making an impact for good in the community. The Lord is working in the lives of several who have been long prayed for. In a recent service, Mycah Frank was baptized. Bonnie and Joshua Mooney rejoiced in the arrival of a new daughter, Rose Diane Mooney, on Monday, August 31, 2026. Rose is welcomed by her siblings Elsie and David.

Please pray for the upcoming Reenactment Outreach at which Mr. Mooney passes out tracts, converses with people, and preaches on the Lord's Day at a park. Pray for two men facing surgery, several who are sick, and those dealing with chronic issues. Also, pray for the salvation of the lost.

REV. ANDREW SIMPSON
Overseeing Minister
Williams Lake Free Presbyterian

Williams Lake, British Columbia

The Williams Lake church hosted several people from the Western Canada FP churches who helped with its VBS July 20–24: Caleb and Yvonne Struck (Calgary), Jean Escobar and her sister Kristen (Cloverdale), and Jen Poulin and her daughter Isaiah (Prince George). Several people from the Williams Lake congregation also helped each day, and 48 children attended throughout the week. The team also carried out some practical work on the church building.

The church is planning to host an outreach team from Northern Ireland next year and will also welcome John and Rachel McNeill from Northern Ireland again. John will be preaching in Williams Lake and Prince George during the summer.
